Snead Tried On Federal Warrant

Case Is Sent to Grand Jury Following a Preliminary Hearing This Morning in U. S. Court—Under $5,000 Bond.

W. M. Snead, charged under the Dyer act by federal authorities with transporting and concealing a stolen car, was given a hearing this morning before United States Commissioner C. T. Barksdale and held under a bond of $5,000 for appearance March 13 at the Federal term of court. J. H. Osborne was bondsman.

The hearing was held in the case of the car Snead says that he bought from A. T. Davis on the night of January 3, which he later sold to J. M. Davis, the car finally reaching the hands of E. C. Arrey.

Little testimony of any sort was adduced at the hearing. That offered by the government witnesses merely showed that a car had been stolen from R. E. Griffith in Charlotte in December, that the car after reaching the hands of J. M. Davis was sold to E. C. Arrey. The defense offered testimony to show that Snead was in Danville on the night the car is alleged to have been stolen in Charlotte, attending a meeting of the directors of the Danville Baseball club. The bill of sale for the car, signed by A. T. Davis, was introduced, as well as correspondence between Snead and B. O. James, secretary of the commonwealth, in regard to registration of the car, all being offered, as stated by counsel for defense, in an effort to show that every transaction of defendant in connection with the car was bona-fide.

About the same general line of testimony was brought out at the hearing this morning as was adduced before Mayor Wooding at the initial hearing of the case when Snead was sent on to the State grand jury. Nothing new was brought out.

An effort was made this morning by counsel for defense to have the bail bond which Snead is held by Mayor Wooding in the case heard before the Commissioner today. This request was denied by the mayor who took the occasion to state that it was his intention to take testimony in all the cases pending against Snead Monday morning.

Snead is now being held in State and Federal courts under a total bail of $10,500.

Irate Husband Beats G. Craver

CHARLOTTE, March 2.—When a jealous husband, G. G. Cauble, dragged Glider Craver, manager of a motion picture house here, from an automobile in which Craver was riding with the jealous husband's wife, Craver was soundly beaten. The beating started a chain of happenings culminating in the husband charging his wife with an assault upon him, which charge she ignored yesterday, necessitating the issuance of Craver's court capias for the young woman.

Mrs. Hazel Cauble, the woman in the case, and Craver offered an explanation of the ride that her car was wedged between two others and she asked Craver to extricate it. This he did, and, as the streets were slippery, she asked him to drive her home. He did so but unfortunately Cauble happened to see them pass.

Craver stated that he did not know where the Cauble home is and so drove past it. The husband of the woman, blood afire, had followed him, and he jerked Craver out, trouncing him soundly. Craver said that several persons assisted in the beating, Cauble said he had no help.

Cauble admitted that Craver was not the man he was after and he was very sorry, he said, that he thrashed him. He thought, he said, in the darkness, that Craver was another fellow, but he was so angry at the sight of his wife rolling along with another man that he did not wait to investigate.

After the beating some of Craver's friends gathered around Cauble as if to mob him and he asked police protection in order to get to his house, say he had no gun to face the crowd. He was given police protection.

Tuesday night Cauble appeared at the police station and took out a warrant charging his wife with an assault upon him and Miss Pauline Perry, a young woman who had been living at the Cauble home, with trespass. As neither of the two appeared in the Recorder's court Wednesday capias was issued for them.

So far Cauble and Craver have taken no legal action against each other.

Oser Is Planning Love In a Castle

ZURICH, March 2.—Love in a castle is the dream of Max Oser, Swiss riding master, and his 16-year-old fiancée, Miss Mathilde McCormick, of Chicago, according to a statement made here yesterday by the bridegroom-to-be.

"Our castle has not yet been chosen," admitted Mr. Oser. "When Miss McCormick arrives here we will choose our estate together."

The riding master explained his family tree, going into details about prominent members of the family and their political and military careers during the last four centuries. One of the original Osers, a famous painter, fell upon the field of battle at Marignano in 1515.

In the middle of the eighteenth century the family founded a candle factory which had a big reputation and prospered until it was ruined by the petroleum industry. It closed in 1860.

A friend who was present at the interview remarked jokingly:

"If Mr. Oser's ancestors had their candle business ruined by the Rockefeller oil industry can the present marriage of Miss McCormick, who is the daughter of John D. Rockefeller's granddaughter, be considered in the light of a recompense?"

Mr. Oser failed to reply to this question, but continued:

"My father was superintendent of large Hungarian estates and there learned horsemanship. He went with Casanova into Central Africa, capturing live lions for European zoos. He was held in captivity by tribesmen in Africa, and was the only European member of the expedition to return alive. He entered the Swiss cavalry during the Franco-Prussian war."

"My father participated in the construction of the first street car line built at Basle and he built the University Riding Academy. He died in 1908 and my mother seven years later."

Virginia's Auto Search Statute Is To Be Tested

WINCHESTER, March 3.—Whether it is legal to search an automobile for liquor on "an information on oath" warrant will be fought out to a finish, lawyers said yesterday, in the case of the commonwealth against Henry McKee, local jitney driver, who was arrested late in December, charged with transporting liquor in violation of state laws.

Judge Whiting day before yesterday heard arguments on a plea in abatement and also a demurrer, both of which were overruled, and a jury was drawn yesterday to try the issue next Monday.

Attorneys for McKee said it was the first case of the kind in Virginia. It is their contention that only "an information on oath" was made for the search of McKee's jitney, wherein five one-gallon jugs were alleged to have been found, whereas, it is maintained, an affidavit should have been made, setting forth the reasons why such persons believed McKee was violating the law.

The defense claimed the accused man was being deprived of his rights under the fourth and fifth amendments of the federal constitution, and they cited rulings in federal district and circuit judges in support of their contention. Similar cases, they said, have arisen in federal courts, but that this was the first of their kind in a state tribunal, and they announced their determination of fighting for the principle involved.

Set Up Counterfeit Shop Like Business

NEW YORK, March 2.—Counterfeiting money is a business undertaking just like manufacturing neckties, it was disclosed yesterday when Max Sasanoff and four others were held in $10,000 bail each by United States Commissioner Hitchcock for a hearing Monday.

"About six months ago Paride Garbari sold his butcher shop and Henry Candler learned of it," said Captain Tucker, in charge of the detectives who captured the band of five within 48 hours after the first counterfeit note, a poor $20 bill, was discovered.

"Candler proposed making counterfeit money to Garbari. He introduced Garbari to Sasanoff, his brother-in-law. Sasanoff studied art in France and is an expert engraver. Garbari agreed to finance the scheme. He put up $4,300 and hired the office in the Putnam building, 44th street and Broadway, for Sasanoff. John Mehl, a printer, was engaged. Sasanoff drew $75 a week and Mehl $60 a week. Candler also received a salary.

"February 14 last, they finished printing $55,000 of the counterfeit notes, made to represent a federal reserve issue. Then they attempted to eliminate all evidence in the office. Mehl partly effaced the plates. These were recovered in his home. The counterfeit notes were given to Garbari to circulate. These we found sewed in an upholstered chair in his home."

Slain Man's Store Burned

PETERSBURG, March 2.—Word has been received here of what is believed to have been the murder of Lafayette Tingley, a merchant of Nottoway county, who conducted a store about five miles from Wellville, and the destruction by fire of the store and contents. The fire is believed to have been set to cover the murder. A few days ago Tingley took supper with his brother, who lives a short distance from the store, to which he returned about 6:30 o'clock. Half an hour later the brother, on looking from a window, discovered Tingley's store afire. He arrived in time to see the walls fall in. The dead body of Tingley was found among the ruins. It bore evidence of having been struck with some heavy weapon. Tingley was unmarried and about 70 years of age.

"Lots of good music and entertainment of all kinds."

"Clean light, modern offices on the American plan."

Hell Cats, Snakes, Win Vindication

NEW YORK, March 2.—Opposing factions of the Holy Trinity Baptist church, a negro congregation in Brooklyn, marched to court today to tell the story of "a small-sized riot" which followed the alleged action of the pastor, Rev. T. S. Harten, of Boston, known as the "colored Sunday," in ordering read at the church vespers service a list of the "hell cats" and "snakes" in his flock.

When the story had been told and the court had heard the testimony, pandemonium broke loose in the courtroom, with women dancing down the aisles and men hurling their hats into the air and clapping their hands.

Testimony showed that on January 3 Rev. Dr. Charles D. Patterson had been ousted from the pulpit by injunction, after charges had been presented against him, and that the Boston evangelist—known for his sermons "A Hot Day in Hell" and "What He Devil Do You Want?"—had been named as his successor.

Then at 10 o'clock, Ella Cheatham, whose husband is chairman of the board of deacons, and who herself is one of Patterson's supporters, circulated a paper entitled "Why Rev. Dr. Patterson is temporarily absent from his pulpit."

On February 19, it was alleged, Mr. Harten had ordered the church clerk to read aloud the list of "hell cats" and "snakes" who had signed the petition. Thereupon to the cheers of supporters and hisses of his opponents, the Cheatham woman was alleged to have marched down the aisle, matched the names from the clerk's list and tore them up.

All of which was, John Dickerson, a trustee and Harten supporter, getting out a summons for the Cheatham woman on a charge of disorderly conduct and her appearance in court today.

Her defense was that she was protecting her character. The case was dismissed.

Negress Spits Snuff In His Face; Slaps Her Down

Tom Trent and Nancy Flood, colored, were trying their best this morning in court to see which could tell the most on the other regarding an occurrence on the street in which the negress alleged that the man slapped her down, without any reason whatever, three times in succession as quickly as she got to her feet. She said that Trent asked her for a dime and that she refused. Trent told a different story. He stated that he was on his way home with some money when he met the negress, whom he claims was drunk. She asked him for the meat and when he refused, he alleges, she spit snuff in his face several times. He stated that this would make anybody angry and that he slapped her jaws one time. The mayor told both to go and that he would consider the case.

Martinsville Girl Attacked By Negro

Two Suspects Being Held In Connection With Attempted Criminal Assault On Young Woman.

News received here this morning from Martinsville of an attempted criminal assault on a young white girl by a negro, the attack taking place early yesterday morning. Owing to the fact that the telephone lines to Martinsville were out of order this morning complete details could not be learned.

From the information obtainable two negro suspects are being held in connection with the attack. It seems that the girl, whose name is given as Mrs. Thea A. and who is a mill operator, was suddenly attacked by a negro, who was a desperate struggle to free herself. She was aided by fishing the negro off. A second attack took place and after further struggling, the girl managed to evade the negro and again this time he disappeared.

Miss Thomas gave a description of the negro to the police which was recorded in two suspects being arrested.

Pathetic Case Is Revealed in Court

Girl, Unable to Get Work, Sold Whisky to Earn Money for Ill Mother.

A pathetic case in which a young girl, despondent over her mother being ill and she, herself being unable to find employment, resorted to selling whiskey in order to earn some money, came to light in the police court this morning.

The case reached the authorities through the critical illness at the hospital of a young man, who, it is said, was suffering from the effects of drinking moonshine whiskey. The whiskey he had drunk apparently was purchased from the girl.

It was learned that the ill youth and two others had purchased two drinks of liquor apiece from the home of Minnie Rudden, the young girl who last summer was shot and seriously wounded by Mike Nicholas, a Greek, and lay at the point of death for many days. The police got in touch with the other two boys and they confessed that they had bought the whiskey from the girl. This resulted in a warrant charging her with selling ardent spirits, being issued. The girl who is still frail and in a delicate condition from the effects of the pistol wound, submitted to the charge and related in a pathetic and criticized conditions which surrounded her mother and herself. She said that she had tried in vain to secure employment but her efforts proved fruitless and that her mother has just been sent home from the hospital following an operation and that there were no means of money. She said she even approached the chief of police in an effort to get work. Finally, she says, she obtained a small quantity of whiskey and sold it one day to some boys she happened to know, in order to raise some money.

The whiskey was evidently of the meanest variety for one of the men became violently ill, his condition necessitating sending him to the hospital.

The mayor gave the boys, who had confessed to buying the whiskey from the girl, a stern lecture and criticized them for leading the girl in trouble by seeking to buy whiskey from her, for they themselves were not regarding the law in so doing, and not respecting themselves.

A fine of $50 and costs was imposed and a 30-day jail term given the girl, but the jail sentence was suspended.

Toy Cars Used To Illustrate Injury To Girl

NEW YORK, March 3.—A miniature trolley car and a greatly reduced facsimile of a motor truck, with tin railroad tracks, all of the kind that children delight to use in juvenile games of railroad and trucking, are prominent exhibits in Justice Lehman's part of the Supreme court today.

The toys are being used in a perfectly serious way to demonstrate to the jury that it is true the $100,000 damage action of nine-year-old Hilda Herman against the Griffin Manufacturing company, just how the little girl was run over on August 22 last.

"When Hilda described the accident to me in her childish manner," Moses Feltenstein, attorney, told the jury, "I thought these toy cars and tracks in order to trust for you the scene of the accident and show you just how it occurred."

With Hilda sitting in the witness chair, her tiny feet dangling far above the floor, repeating her story, Mr. Feltenstein moved the miniature street car and motor truck about until he got them in the position in which the child said they were when the truck crashed down upon her.

Hilda testified that when she was hurt she was returning home, after getting a pair of stockings for her doll, which she had left at the home of a neighbor.

Mr. Feltenstein asserted he would prove by surgical experts that Hilda was so terribly crushed that she never can be a mother. By what the attorney termed "a veritable miracle of surgery," he said the little girl has been put into such shape that she is now being taught to walk.

Large Outpouring Honors Dr. Ramsey

One of the most noteworthy funerals in northern Pennsylvania for many years was that at the Gretna Methodist church at 1:30 p. m., yesterday of Dr. R. T. Ramsey, whose sudden death at his home at that place has been chronicled. In point of attendance from various sections of the country and manifestation of widespread sorrow, it is rare that a country funeral is more noteworthy. This cultured and consecrated physician had an extensive acquaintance and had become widely esteemed and beloved by reason of his professional ministrations. He was a Masonic minister, marked by one of the largest processions of members of the ancient fraternity ever seen in that section and by the attendance in full uniform of a delegation of sixteen representatives of the Grand Commandery, No. 7, Knights Templar, of which Dr. Ramsey was a member.

A delegation of Danville knights headed by the commander and recorder went up from this city on train No. 44, were reinforced by others from Chatham and finally by the delegation coming from Gretna and vicinity. Despite the intermittent dripping of rain all the forenoon and early afternoon and the fact that the streets were covered by two inches of slush, the outpouring of the town's citizenship was almost universal. The funeral was an event of all-day interest. In the forenoon the body was lying in state in the lodge-room of the Masonic order, where many viewed the familiar face and form of the lamented physician for the last time. The Masonic lodge met for the purpose of paying its final tribute at the old Odd Fellow lodge room, across the street and with the visiting brethren and the commandery Masons, the hall was filled. The Templar delegation acted as escort to the lodge-room and led the way up the Main street to the Methodist church, where the lines were opened, the commandery presented swords and the Masons passed between the uniformed and so large the attendance that the Masons and Templars could not get into the church, and many others were left standing in the snow outside. The Episcopal church, just across the street was courteously opened and lights therein and the overflow crowd made as comfortable as possible.

The church services were conducted by the Rev. William B. Bett of the Methodist church at Martinsville. Assisted by the Rev. J. M. Kirtley, and consisted of the familiar service of that denomination, with appropriate hymns interspersed. Many floral offerings had been sent by friends of the deceased and these were borne by friends. The Masonic services were conducted by Worshipful F. B. Watson of Chatham, assisted by other prominent members of the fraternity.

The Danville and Chatham Knights Templar had to leave on train 135 before the body was buried with all the honors of Masonry.

The visiting Templars were hospitably entertained at lunch at the Virginia hotel by the Gretna Masons.

GREENSBORO WAS MASONIC MECCA

Captain Lesley C. West, a longtime resident and popular citizen of Danville but for more than twenty years living in Richmond, "dropped off" the train from Richmond yesterday sufficiently long to receive the glad hand and the cordial greetings of a few of his old Danville friends while on his way to Greensboro. "Cap" West was formerly yard-master of the Southern railway here and he and Mrs. West left many warm friends behind when they decided to go to Richmond.

The special occasion for the visit to Greensboro was to attend a notable assembling of the Masonic fraternity and particularly of Southern railway masons, including President Rufus L. Harrison, who is an enthusiastic member of the fraternity. General Manager Robert E. Simpson, formerly of Danville, Superintendent A. D. Shelton and many other railway officials and Masons of Danville. At Greensboro the work in the Master Mason degree was exemplified by a distinguished group of prominent members of the order in North Carolina and Virginia. The first session of the degree was conferred at a communication beginning at 5 p. m., after which three banquets were held simultaneously so as to entertain the great throng of the craft in attendance. At 8 o'clock, the work was resumed and the remainder of this impressive degree was put on in the most approved manner.

It is estimated that nearly a thousand of the aged brethren gathered at Greensboro for this red-letter occasion and among them were many Masons of high degree and several past grand masters of the order. If there is anything to which "Cap" West is attached more than to the Southern railway it is the Masonic fraternity.

Mr. Parker Pastor Here Nine Years

On Sunday morning, March 5th, at the Moffett Memorial Baptist church, North Main street, the ninth anniversary of the pastorate of the Rev. C. L. D. Parker will be appropriately commemorated by the congregation, and a special anniversary sermon will be preached by the Rev. W. Spillman, D. D., of Nashville, Tenn., of the Southern Baptist convention.

A pastorate of nine years is of itself a noteworthy one, worthy of congratulation and commemoration, but in the case of Mr. Parker, it is a more notable and a more pleasing. A summary of some of the developments of the church under Mr. Parker's pastorate may be of interest to others outside the congregation and the denomination. During the nine years, a total of 659 persons have been received into the fellowship of the church. The annual contributions in support of the church have increased from $500 nine years ago to $10,000 a year at the present time. Sufficient money has always been provided in the church treasury at all times to meet all the current expenses not having to resort to a single extra collection.

The mid-week prayer services through all these years have been well attended and have been marked by growing interest. Numerically, both the Sunday school and the congregation are now the largest in the entire history of the church. The church edifice has been thoroughly overhauled and improved and modernized in its equipment, and a new pipe organ has been added. During almost a decade of Mr. Parker's pastorate it is said that there has never been a cross or a misunderstanding between the pastor and the board of deacons nor between pastor and congregation. Dr. Spillman's anniversary address will be the light of these facts and condition be attuned to a note of congratulation and jubilation.

DISCUSS AMOUNT OF FUEL NAVY WILL NEED REST OF YR.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2.—The discussion of the amount of fuel the navy will need for the rest of the fiscal year reached the floor of the House today when Chairman Knickerbocker of the appropriations committee, in opening the debate on the government's second deficiency bill for the year, declared in reference to the dispute over fuel oil that this was the first time in framing the measure that naval experts had failed to raise the question of an impending conflict with Japan.

Mr. Madden added that in cutting the figure for fuel oil from around $12,000,000 to $6,000,000 the committee had reached its "conclusions on a basis of a million and a quarter dollars a month which, according to one of the best men in the navy, whose name I will not mention, will suffice."

Officials at the navy department, however, disagreed tonight with his estimate, asserting that even if every ship in the navy, as at anchor immediately before and after the war, could be kept at anchor until July 1 next, the fuel bill at the end of the year would exceed the limit the appropriations committee has proposed by at least half a million dollars.

It was made clear by department officials that the general order directing that all naval vessels except those in the Far East, the Near East, and in Mexican and in South American waters, stop steaming where they are and remain at anchor or at dock until the end of the fiscal year could not be delayed many days without greatly increasing the probable fuel deficiency beyond the limit proposed by the House committee. Ships that will be permitted to operate under steam, if the order is issued, will be only those engaged on missions abroad to which they were sent at the request of the State department.

CRISIS STILL FAR FROM SOLUTION

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, March 2.—The political crisis projected by the prime minister yesterday has made no progress toward solution, and nobody ventures a prediction as to how it will eventually be solved. In its essence it is a personal conflict between Mr. Lloyd George and Sir George Younger, leader of the conservative secessionists, than symptom of the struggle on the part of the three principal political parties, conservative, liberal and labor, to alter the coalition system, which is generally considered to have outlived its usefulness, and get back to the old party system.

In this struggle Mr. Lloyd George occupied somewhat of an anomalous position, though as a member of the government, he has no direct control of the party funds or the electoral machinery, since he is the accepted leader of neither the conservative nor the liberal party, each wing of the coalition having returned to its own party machinery. Sir George Younger is chairman of the unionist organization, which controls the party funds, and represents the whole conservative party of the country. He was appointed to the position by Andrew Bonar Law, who, although he retired from the leadership of the House of Commons on account of ill health, is still titular leader of the conservative party as a whole. Younger therefore cannot be regarded as a seceder from the coalition party, and if he elects to stand for the party, he will continue to control the party funds.

MEN STILL HELD BY AUTHORITIES

The men, who were held in custody at the police station, were released tonight by the police, and the men were now in custody.

Danville Elks Elect Officers

Danville Lodge, No. 227, B. P. O. Elks, held its annual election of officers last night, the meeting being attended by a goodly percentage of the members, who took a lively interest in the proceedings. Jesse W. Benton was named ex-officio pastor to be installed at the first meeting in April.

Other officers elected were: H. C. Morse, esteemed leading knight; Harry J. Hundley, esteemed loyal knight; G. W. Covington, esteemed lecturing knight; S. W. Collier, secretary; W. J. Farthing, treasurer; John W. Carter, Jr., trustee, these years. The representative to the Grand Lodge this year will be John W. Carter, Jr., and the alternate representative will be G. Maury.

REVENUE MORE THAN EXPENSES

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2.—Joseph W. Powell, who will retire as president of the Emergency Fleet corporation of the shipping board tomorrow, announced tonight that for the first time in the history of the shipping board the ship operating expenses for February were less than the operating revenues. Since last July when he assumed office, he added, the shipping board has disposed of $20,370,000 worth of property.

The February figures for ship operating expenses, Powell said, showed that approximately $6,500,000 was taken in by the managing operators on shipping board accounts and that the expenditures were $6,400,000.

BOTTLE OF GIN PART GOES WITH PURCHASE

NEW YORK, March 2.—Iszy Einstein and Joe Smith, prohibition enforcement sleuths, today invaded Harlem's "black belt" in quest of contraband liquors. Following an eager stream of dusky folk into Louis Immernan's delicatessen and observing there was a run on canned tomatoes, they ordered a can each. The price was a bit steep, but when they sampled the contents of two bottles that were "thrown in" they understood the reason.

They reported they seized 400 bottles of gin, three barrels of whiskey and five large cans of alcohol—not to mention Mr. Immernan.

REV. C. L. GARRISON ATTENDS MEETING OF TRAINING SCHOOL

Rev. Charles L. Garrison, president of the Chesapeake area Congress and Training school, of the Disciples of Christ, went to Lynchburg Thursday morning to attend a conference on program and arrangements for the 1932 Congress-Training school, which is to be held at Lynchburg College, July 3-14.

This Congress and Training school has now become a permanent feature of disciple activities in Virginia. Last year the registered delegates numbered over one hundred and fifty and it is believed the attendance this year will go beyond that figure. It is attended by ministers, lay leaders, Bible school superintendents and teachers, and young people in training for Christian leadership.

At the sessions of the Congress inspirational messages are brought by prominent evangelists and lay leaders; and there are open forums, questionnaires, and fronting city, town and country discussions of practical problems concerning churches.

In the training school standard teacher training courses are offered on a variety of subjects, certificates being awarded to those doing the work in a satisfactory manner. This year the Rev. Robert Hopkins, of St. Louis, general Bible school secretary of the Disciples of Christ, and acting general secretary of the Interdenominational Sunday school is going to be responsible for the organization and program of the Chesapeake area training school, and is planning to bring to Virginia a strong faculty of Sunday school experts.

Thief Returns Watch Stolen Seven Years Ago

ELYRIA, Ohio, March 3.—A gold watch was stolen from the home of Earl Hunter here. Police failed to find it. Hunter moved to Birmingham, Ala. That was about seven years ago.
Hunter, while here a few days ago displayed the stolen watch.
"Several days ago I received a package through the mail," Hunter explained. "In it was the watch and a note from a man now living at Newark, Ohio. The man said he had 'hit the sawdust trail' and, now that he 'had religion,' and no further use for the watch, he had stolen from me."

"It wasn't that I wanted to get fat—no, I just wanted to put on about 8 pounds more flesh, then I'd be just right. I've nibbled at diets, gorged big meals, I've hauled health resorts, been to fine climates, guzzled milk, butternut, olive oil, emulsions, swallowed pills, digestion fads, and a score of other 'won't-work' things. Finally, it dawned on me. None of these things was building up the new red blood cells I needed. I took S. S. S., the greatest red-blood-cell builder, firm-flesh producer, blood-cleanser known. I put on 7 pounds in a month, and my nerves, instead of strings feel like wires. S. S. S. has the world beat."

Victim Reveals How Lindsay Wooed Million From Women

SNAPSHOT OF ALFRED E. LINDSAY AND HIS WAYS WITH WOMEN VICTIMS, AS DESCRIBED BY MRS. DOROTHY ATWOOD.

WOMEN TRICKED BY LINDSAY
Women induced by Alfred E. Lindsay to give him more than a million dollars for investment will be the principal witnesses against him at his trial in New York on a charge of swindling. He is under $50,000 bond. His victims and the amounts which they are reported to have entrusted to him include:
Mrs. Lillian N. Duke $275,000
Mrs. Dorothy Atwood 70,000
Mrs. Helen Burnett 31,000
Mrs. Adelaide V. Rice 23,000
Miss Charlotte Nilsson 20,000
Miss Margaret Bogert 18,000
Mrs. W. H. Arnold 17,000
How Lindsay, uncouth and uncultured, succeeded in wooing a million from these women, of all ages, tastes and social positions, is the puzzle of psychologists. His methods are revealed, however, in the accompanying exclusive interview which Mrs. Atwood has given Ruth Abelung of NEA Service.

BY RUTH ABELUNG
(Copyright, 1922, by NEA Service.)
NEW YORK, March 3.—How did Alfred E. Lindsay, former strike-breaker once indicted for white slavery, win and hold the confidence of wealthy and intelligent women, to the point of being entrusted with fortunes estimated, altogether, around a million dollars?
This question I asked Mrs. Dorothy Atwood, New York society woman, in her beautiful apartment just off Riverside Drive. Mrs. Atwood trusted Lindsay with $70,000. And lost it. Her reply was:
"With dominance."
Mrs. Atwood is a Mexican, auburn-haired and petite. She has traveled in Europe and speaks four languages. She was left in comfortable circumstances when her husband died.
LINDSAY ABSOLUTELY DOMINATED OTHERS
"Alfred Lindsay absolutely dominated any company with which he happened to be," continued Mrs. Atwood.
"He was not a cultured man. His English was bad. His figure was ungainly. He was too huge, too awkward."
"But he dominated! It amounted almost to defiance."
"When I met him at the home of Mrs. Lillian Duke, from whom he is said to have obtained several hundred thousand dollars, I had the feeling, 'Now here is a diamond in the rough.'"
"His voice was not pleasant. He was not suave, not finished, but he instantly began talking and held the center of interest. He was clever enough not to talk about himself, but about other important people."
"As we became better acquainted he talked of these important people in connection with his business. Naturally, when he had been well introduced and offered to invest money for me, I felt it was safe to trust him.

HE KNEW THE HOUR OF LEAST RESISTANCE
"He was clever enough to study a woman's moods. He knew," said Mrs. Atwood, "in an almost uncanny way, with an almost psychic sense, the hour of least resistance. He knew, without asking, when things were not going just right."
"He never offered sympathy. That would have been crude, wouldn't it?" Mrs. Atwood smiled, cynically. "But he took that moment for bigger things—for instance, for deciding that my jewels were unsafe in my own house."
"He came in that particular day," Mrs. Atwood went on, "and told me that I was wearing too many jewels, that it was unsafe for a woman alone as I am, to wear gorgeous jewelry, and he asked me if he might take it to his safe at the Astor where it would be out of harm's way."
"I objected. I flatly refused. But he simply took some of the most valuable pieces at which he had been looking and walked away with them!"
WHO COULD BE FOND OF A MAN LIKE THIS?
"For a hint," Mrs. Atwood repeated the question. "Goodness, no! He had a red nose, greatly flabby jaws, gray eyes which were too light and too shifty. His chin was too short. The space from the base of his nose to his chin was amazingly short."
"Why, I think his mouth was the only good feature he had. That curved up a little at the corners and was thin-lipped, which accounts for his eternal optimism. One couldn't be fond of him, but he dominated and defied."
"And he was an excellent alibi. A wonderful alibi, going wrong. He told you in the most convincing way that certain circumstances were preventing any return on your investment, explain it all, and I might have gone on believing for any length of time that all he said was true and that eventually big returns would come. If his vanity had not struck a false note."
PROUD OF HANDS AND KEPT THEM WELL
"He was always very proud of his hands," said Mrs. Atwood, "and kept them well. His nails were a true too long and too shiny and he wore a huge sapphire on his right hand."
"One day, in shaking hands with him, my finger closed over that sapphire. It didn't have the clear, keen feeling of a genuine jewel."
"The nipped, almost pasty feeling of that stone made me think for the first time that Alfred Lindsay was not genuine himself!"
"I looked at him," continued Mrs. Atwood, "and I thought, 'Are you wearing fake jewelry?' And are you like your jewels?"
"Asked my she continued to trust Lindsay, long after she began to doubt his reliability, Mrs. Atwood thought a moment.
"Probably it was because he used to come up here and cry like a child when he was in trouble."
"During the periods that he was getting along well, he used to stalk around. He was clumsy, too. Why, he broke this chair!" Yes," she lifted a cushion out of a handsome corner

(Special to the Bee.)
RICHMOND, March 3.—Governor Trinkle today approved before a joint session of the General Assembly and made an address on the subject of good roads and an issue of bonds. He denied he had made any statement that he was opposed to the bond issue for road purposes. His speech was well received.

Mrs. Mary Preston

It's surprising the queer ideas we get sometimes. When I first started to write these advertisements, I didn't understand anything about guarantees—nor advertising either for that matter.

After I had written my first advertisement, the sales-manager of The Heekin Company said, "Mrs. Preston, I think we ought to guarantee this baking powder."

"Good gracious," I replied. "A superior baking powder like Heekin's doesn't need to be guaranteed. Why, any woman can get excellent results with it. I've analyzed it, and I know that a purer baking powder can't be made. (No foreign ingredients are added to create an unnatural effervescence or to give a false impression of quality.) I've baked with it and so have my assistants. We've never had one failure when we used Heekin's."

Then I learned something about guarantees. The sales-manager said that it is only because Heekin's is a superior baking powder that we can afford to guarantee it. He explained that only a good article can be guaranteed—a poor one would go out of business sending money back to dissatisfied customers.

"That being the case," I said, "let's make the strongest kind of a guarantee for Heekin's. For I truly believe that it is the finest baking powder made, and we know that it is the favorite with thousands of women."

And here is the guarantee we decided upon: If anything you bake—using Heekin's—doesn't turn out to your entire satisfaction, list the ingredients in whatever you bake, their prices, and the price of the baking powder, and the entire amount of money will be returned to you by The Heekin Company, Cincinnati, Ohio. Simply send the list together with your name and address.

After one trial, I am sure you will agree with me that Heekin's is the finest baking powder you ever used. Buy a can today and try it. You'll like Heekin's.

ARMY BUDGET WILL BE SLASHED FIFTY OR SIXTY MILLION

The Personnel of Army Will Also Be Cut Below
Estimate.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—At least $50,000,000 and possibly $60,000,000 will be slashed from the budget estimate for the war department by the House appropriations sub-committee which is framing the army appropriation bill for the fiscal year beginning July 1 next, members of the sub-committee predicted tonight. The measure, they added, not only will provide that the enlisted strength of the army be reduced from its present strength of 12,900 on the active list.

War department estimates were advised and pared down by the budget bureau to approximately $363,000,000 for the coming fiscal year, of this amount $293,000,000 being requested for the army and the rest for non-military work such as improvements to rivers and harbors.

Concern was expressed in army circles tonight over the prospective forced reduction of the regular estimate. Both Secretary Weeks and General Pershing in appearing recently before the sub-committee urged that provision be made for an army of 150,000 men and the sub-committee in deciding upon 11,000 as the maximum number of officers has disregarded the recommendation of General Pershing who outlined plans for "weeding out" in efficient officers to bring the force down to 12,000 in the expectation of them increasing the officer personnel to 14,000 by commissioning officers in the junior grades.

A reduction of the army to 115,000 enlisted strength it was pointed out by department officials, would mean an actual effective force of little more than 105,000 men, as the regular turnover, due to expiring enlistments, recruit training and other conditions, keeps about 10,000 men on the average continuously out of the active ranks.

The proposed reduction also, it was said, would mean a heavy additional curtailment of various army activities. Exhaustive studies made in the department as to the most advisable course to follow if another sharp cut in strength was made are known to have indicated that the coast defenses, except for a few harbors of vital importance, must be virtually abandoned by the regulars in order that the regular establishment might be able to continue its primary mission in training the national guard and organized reserve.

It has already been suggested to House committees, however, that if the regular estimate is to be reduced, the bulk of the coast defense work might be transferred to the national guard or organized strength of the army, as tentatively fixed upon by the House sub-committee. It appeared possible tonight that only the guns of a few major harbor defenses such as New York and San Francisco would be retained by the regular establishment, the other defenses being left to the second and third lines of defense in the new system.

Another activity which might be subjected to cutting before paring down of the mobile forces to meet congressional action was undertaken probably will be aviation, it was said. It was regarded as likely that the flying service also might be transferred as far as possible to the national guard or organized reserve elements of the new army.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan Is the Best Tonic For Nervous,
Tired-Out Wives

Is your wife "all tired out" and cross and irritable much of the time? Do the children "bother her to death" every day, and do the ordinary house-told tasks that she formerly performed with ease seem now to "tax her"? In other words, do you often come home to a house of trouble instead of a house of joy and happiness?

If your answer is "yes" to these pointed questions, don't blame your wife until she has taken Gude's Pepto-Mangan with her meals for a few weeks. She is simply run down and nervous and needs the kind of iron that she will get in Gude's Pepto-Mangan to give her more vitality and strength. For thirty years doctors have recommended Gude's Pepto-Mangan as a first-class building-up tonic. Sold by your druggist in both liquid and tablet form.—adv.

Some Americans laughed when they read about the water shortage that followed the Berlin water works strike. "Plenty to drink with the breweries running over there," they said. But here you see the Germans crowding to one of the few places where they could get water.

LITTLE CHANCE TO EXTRADITE NEGRO FROM CANADA

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2.—Hope of obtaining the extradition at this time from Hamilton, Ontario, to North Carolina, of Matthew Bullock, negro charged with attempted murder in connection with the Norfolk riots, was understood to have been practically abandoned today by Governor Morrison, of that State after a conference with Under-Secretary Fletcher at the State department.

Governor Morrison was accompanied to the department by Senators Simmons and Overman of his State and Mr. Fletcher was said to have reiterated to them what had been said on February 25 in a message from the department to the governor at Raleigh that under the extradition treaty the United States was bound to observe the court procedure of Canada in all cases arising under the treaty.

The court at Hamilton has ruled that Bullock will not be returned to North Carolina unless sufficient evidence to warrant such a step is given by witnesses from the State, and it is the understanding here that if the witnesses do not appear by tomorrow Bullock's release will be ordered. Governor Morrison reiterated today that he did not want to send witnesses to Ontario and that if he did he had neither the authority nor the funds to do so. Moreover, it was pointed out, if Bullock is to be released tomorrow unless witnesses appear, it is too late to act now.

It was indicated, however, that the case would not be dropped permanently, as there was the possibility that Bullock might be held later in some other jurisdiction, or some other development might arise which would warrant a fresh attempt at extradition.

SMALL BOYS LIKE HARDING

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—President Harding tonight may have the satisfaction of knowing that he passed muster after undergoing the critical gaze of five small boys who called on him in Washington last Monday with a petition from 50,000 playfellows asking him to become honorary president of the Boys' Club Federation.

"He seemed like a nice man to us," solemnly declared 15-year-old Max Eber of the East Side one of the delegation, who returned to his school desk today reflecting with satisfaction upon the success of his mission. "He's a big man, sort of stout, and he stood up all the time we were there, and smiled."

Confessing a slight nervousness while sitting in the White House waiting to be ushered into the president's presence, Max said:

"Soon as we went in he started smiling and soon as we saw that and he spoke to us so nice we got over our fears."

"Guess it was kinder like a sigh of relief to him, because all the persons that was in to see him were on business matters."

"When it was all over, he said to me, 'Well, goodbye Max. Glad I met you. And you, Wilber, and you' and he named 'em all, never making a mistake."

"There was other people waitin' in there that never got in to see the president," Max added importantly.

LINDSAY ABOUT TO LAUNCH MOVE IN PHILADELPHIA

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—Alfred E. Lindsay, under indictment for swindling wealthy women in fictitious stock transactions, was about to launch a Philadelphia campaign on the eve of his arrest.

This was disclosed tonight by Richard C. Murphy, assistant district attorney who said his informant was Maurice Wood, proprietor of the Green Hill Farm hotel at Overbrook, Pa. Wood told him Lindsay had engaged the hotel's most luxurious suite, apparently to be in touch with persons of means and social standing who were guests at the hotel.

In canvassing New York City with a list of jewelry that Lindsay's wealthy women dupes said they gave him as security in bogus stock deals the police discovered that he had pawned hundreds of valuable trinkets and also bonds and stock certificates in the name of "Al Lind" (other assumed names were used in the pawnshops, Mr. Murphy said).

Form Plan to Stop Car Thefts

Motor Theft Commission Would Destroy the Market for Stolen Automobiles.

CHICAGO, March 2.—Destroy the market for stolen automobiles and thereby stop the thefts, is the plan now in process of formation by the Interstate Motor Theft Commission here.

Laws, locks and protective devices have proved themselves inadequate, says W. R. Van Courtland, commissioner. The professional motor car thief is unabashed. Motor vehicles of an approximate value of $30,000, the commission says, are stolen every day in the United States, despite all measures taken to check the thievery. Large numbers of persons thrive as a result of the traffic.

The plan is this: A car is stolen in Chicago. If the numbers are changed one of two things happens, either a duplicate of some other number is made or a fake number, one that the manufacturer never placed on a car. When the car is sold and re-registered in any state some number must be given. A duplicate number will immediately be caught and the two or more cars carrying that number will be thoroughly investigated. A fake number will show up just as quickly and be looked into. If the number is not changed there will be a report of the number on the commission's records as that of a stolen car and when the same number is registered again from the same state or any other it will immediately be caught.

The lack of any national clearance system in the past has been one of the largest contributing factors in making this lawlessness easy and profitable, Mr. Van Courtland states. With the commission's national clearance system in operation a car stolen in Maine, the numbers changed and the car sold and registered in California, would immediately be caught, he asserts.

The plan is virtually a "fingerprint" system as applied to automobiles. A master record of every car registered in the 48 states as well as the new cars that come into existence is to be kept at the commission's headquarters. The numerical arrangement of the records make checking of any vehicle simple and automatic. A "Smith eight" for example, engine number 1234, is registered with the state. The commission receives this number and goes to post it, but finds another "Smith eight" already registered in that state or some other—and they do not correspond in detail. It is immediately apparent that one is incorrect. No man changes these numbers except for fraud. It is a simple process of elimination for the law enforcement bodies having jurisdiction over these cars to determine where the trouble lies and then with the aid of a fine commission, the original identity of the stolen car and to whom it belongs is determined. Through this "national clearance test" the commission believes that it will be virtually impossible to dispose permanently of a stolen machine. Closely identified with the commission are sheriffs, police department heads, Chamber of Commerce secretaries, manufacturers, business and professional men. Names that appear on the national advisory boards include Joseph A. Fauriol, deputy police commissioner, New York; Dan Beard, national Boy Scout commissioner; J. A. Hall, educational director, Associated Advertising Clubs of the World; and Gutzen Borglum, sculptor and president of the International Sporting Club.

Chinese Students In England Are Treated Unfair

LONDON, March 2.—Chinese students in England are complaining that British manufacturers are chary of admitting them to their workshops, according to S. E. Tan, ex-secretary of the London Chinese Students association. He contrasts this attitude with the practice in the United States and France, where, he says, every opportunity is given to Chinese students to combine work and study.

First Secretary Chu Chao Hsin of the Chinese embassy in London, has just made some very pointed remarks in regard to the attitude of many English people toward China. He said that so-called friends of China sometimes remark "the most interesting thing would be to find out how to open up China."

Was it not fair, he urged, to ask whether China had not views of her own as to how she would be opened up? Judging from the way some people talked, Chu Chao Hsin continued, China was very much in the position of some joint at a sacrificial feast, with every guest trying to discuss how they could best carve it up to their own advantage, while all the time pretending they were really actuated by the greatest goodwill toward the animal which had furnished the chief dish.

He reminded his hearers that the American secretary of state, John Hay, who originated the policy of the "Open Door" had said: "Whoever understands China socially, politically, economically, religiously, holds the key to the world's politics for the next five centuries."

TRIPLETS ARRIVE TO MIDDLEAGED COUPLE

WALNUT RIDGE, Ark., March 2. Henry Suffell, 54, and wife, 44, today became the parents of triplets, two girls weighing eight pounds each and a boy weighing nine pounds. The couple were married about a year ago.

Mrs. Clarence Herndon is quite sick at her apartment on Mt Vernon Ave.

Principals In Court Shooting

Claim Quail Are Song Birds

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 2.—Quail are songbirds, according to the executive committee of the State Humane Society. Maintaining that they are also allies of farmers, resolutions adopted by the committee urge that all farmers of the states they inhabit be asked to feed and care for them. It is asserted that the work and the small amount of grain thus expended would be abundantly repaid in the destruction of insect pests and the seeds of noxious weeds.

The resolution also proposes that quail shooting be prohibited indefinitely. Without such protection the birds are in danger of extermination, says Sam F. Fullerton, executive agent of the society. The society wants quail shooting stopped for a generation at least, he adds. Although there is now a closed season on quail in this state, it will soon expire.

J. S. Crosslin (inset) prominent Waco (Tex.) real estate man, in a Waco courtroom as she left the witness stand at the opening of Crosslin's second trial on charges of mistreating the girl. She is free on $4,000 bond, signed by several Waco business men. Crosslin, at a previous trial, was convicted and sentenced to nine years in the pen, but secured a reversal of the case. He leaves a wife and four children.

Conference On Passports Ends

GRAZ, Austria, March 3.—Central European states are not ready to sacrifice their passport requirements in the interest of better business and travel conditions. The passport conference of the succession states (of Austria-Hungary) showed only partial success.

Austria, Hungary and Czechoslovakia were the only governments that agreed to issue two-year passports and to give visas good for a year.

Rumania and Jugoslavia agreed to the proposed reforms with certain reservations.

Miss Mary Peyton Fulghum, Kathryn Hines, Wm Davis, Prince Pryor, Clifton Peale and Wm Wenner have returned from Lynchburg where they witnessed the Washington and Lee game.

Just One More Idle Bartender

18—JUST—NICE, March 2.—(United Press).—"Smiling" Fred Martin, globe-trotting American bartender, who has mixed a cocktail in every port and is better known to many American tourists than Eiffel tower or St. Peter's, has quite the profession.

To speak accurately, Fred has lost his job. During the summer of late years, Fred has presided over the creation of near-absinthe fizzes at Deauville; during the winter, he has welcomed his friends from behind the "American bar" at the Municipal Casino here.

It was a bewitching young woman with a New York accent that cost Fred his place behind the Casino bar. Fred never could resist a New York accent, he says. She had lost heavily at baccarat. She knew she could win if she only had 5,000 francs more.

It is strictly forbidden for an employee of the Casino to loan money. But the accent reminded Fred of a girl he had known in Harlem. He coughed out five thousand francs, and the woman departed hopelessly.

Fred never knew if she won or lost. But the Casino management found out about the matter, and Fred received the "back."

"But, never again for me," says Fred. "An American bartender is an exile, anyhow, these days. I guess I'll take my wife and my motor car and make a tour of Europe. Why work, anyway, when one isn't appreciated?"

Animals Will Have Maternity Hospital

DETROIT, Mich., March 2.—Officials of the Detroit stockyards, at the behest of the Detroit Humane Society, have provided a "maternity hospital" for animals at the yard. This is believed here to be the first animal hospital of its kind in the country.

A large number of cattle are taken to the institution each week it is announced. An old shed is used for hospital purposes, it being converted into a building that will protect the animals from the elements. Windows were provided and the floor covered with straw to a considerable depth.

The hospital work is in charge of government veterinarians.

DR. HUBERT WORK WILL SUCCEED WILL HAYS

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Dr. Hubert Work, first assistant postmaster general, was nominated by President Harding and confirmed by the Senate today to be postmaster general. He succeeds Will H. Hays, resigned.

—Miss Emma Smith has returned from a week-end visit to R. M. W. C. at Lynchburg Va.

"Court Day" Is Abolished

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 2.—"Court Day" a century-old institution in Kentucky, has suffered a painful jolt here. The Circuit court, through an abatement order, has taken away from it "cheapdays," a public square in the center of the business district, where farmers and traders for miles around gathered in numbers on the second Monday in each month to swap horses and to trade anything from harnesses to home. And now, for the first time in more than 100 years, they are not permitted to meet in the historic old square, of late years within the sight of the town clock in the courthouse tower, but have been shunted to another and less desirable street. The farmers say, however, they will not submit tamely to what they regard as an invasion of their rights and indicate they will carry the case to the Kentucky court of appeals. The lower court said they made of it a nuisance, at once unsanitary and unsightly.

New Zealand Prefers Goods From England

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, March 2.—The New Zealand government has just shown its preference for British machinery by rejecting an American bid for a hydro-electric machinery contract and awarding it to a British firm, although the American offered the machinery for 10,000 pounds sterling less than the British competitors.

Premier Massey was questioned about the contract in the House of Representatives and said in reply that the government loss would be reduced by the preference tariff in favor of British goods to 7,000 pounds. He added that the cabinet had decided to take British machinery manufactured by British workmen.

This is the first of a series of contracts to be awarded for the installation of extensive hydro-electric works in New Zealand.

DEMAND IS MADE ON CONGRESS FOR SUFFICIENT FUNDS

No Better Argument for Waterways Than Attitude of Railways.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—A "demand" was made on Congress in the closing session of the National Rivers and Harbors congress that the amount of money recommended by the chief of army engineers as necessary for improvements of national rivers and harbors. President John H. Small, of Washington, N. C., who was re-elected president of the congress by a unanimous vote, called attention of the delegates to the fact that this is an election year and suggested that they go to their congressmen and demand adequate support for the rivers and harbors improvements.

Major General Lansing H. Beach, chief of army engineers, addressed the congress today and said that in his opinion "you cannot get the argument for the waterways than the attitude of the railways toward them."

"They won't prorate," he said, "they won't issue bills of lading. It seems to me to be one of the principles of modern business to put a competitor out of the running before the consumer comes into consideration. And much that has been done by the railways toward waterways is simply the question of eliminating a competitor out of the running. The election of directors for the various states, and a banquet tonight at which Vice-President Coolidge presided."

Dr. Julius S. Klein, director of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, of the Department of Commerce, one of the speakers at the banquet, said that "the natural advantages enjoyed by our overseas competitors because of their location close to sea are difficult enough to overcome, but when this handicap is supplemented by staggering transportation charges covering necessary long hauls to water fronts, the inland exporter is up against it."

The seriousness of the situation from an export standpoint, he added, "will perhaps be better understood if we bear in mind the fact that 29 per cent of the manufactured articles exported from this country originate west of Petersburg. East of the Rockies and North of the Arkansas-Tennessee line."

The convention elected the following directors for the South Atlantic seaboard: George Ainslie, Richmond, Va.; L. R. Aikin, Brunswick, Ga.; William H. Bixby, and William M. Black, of Washington, D. C.; Senator Charles U. Fletcher, Jacksonville, Fla.; A. F. Kunge, Columbus, Ga.; S. T. Reid, Spartanburg, S. C.

Senator Joseph E. Ransdell, of Louisiana, was elected life director. Vice-President Coolidge, in addressing the banquet said that all the "great marts of trade, since the beginning of time, have been located within easy access of transportation by water."

Senator Duncan U. Fletcher, of Florida, told the delegates that gratifying utilization of waterways is imperative not only to facilitate domestic commerce, but to "permit the American farmer to invade the European markets as a result of the much cheaper transportation by water system."

BETTER GOODS FOR PUBLIC

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—The manufacture of better products to restore public confidence was advocated as cure for present national ills by Sec. retary of Labor James J. Davis in an address to advertising men tonight.

The buyers' strike is still in existence, Mr. Davis said, adding that its dissipation would point the way to normal conditions and prosperity.

"The most important thing you can do is to break this buyers' strike," he said. "This buyers' strike has not been alone against high prices, but against poor quality. We've got to get the workman aroused to putting out his best work, and the manufacturer determined to put out the best product in his power. Honest wares, at fair prices, will restore confidence, and people will buy again."

MRS. FRADY DIES IN MIAMI, FLA.

MIAMI, Fla., March 2.—Edgar C. Frady, Chicago automobile man, who shot his wife three times in their suite in a local hotel last Sunday afternoon was formerly charged with murder following her death in a hospital here this afternoon. He had been under guard since the affair. Frady, who slashed his own throat, is recovering in the same hospital. Last night and this morning physicians held out a faint ray of hope for Mrs. Frady's recovery. She appeared brighter during the morning and about noon expressed the hope that she might live for the sake of her 16-year-old son, Edgar, Jr., who lived yesterday from Chicago. At 11 she suffered a relapse.

Harry Thompson, brother, and Robert Swan, sister, of Chicago, at Mrs. Frady's bedside when she died. The body will be shipped to Chicago.

DUE NOW ON A $100 LOAN

SAN JOSE, March 2.—When George Jones borrowed $100 for three months at 10 per cent interest monthly on January 13, 1932, from Henry R. Stuart, he did not figure perhaps that the loan would lead up to a judgment against him for $304,840.832.912.685.16 in the Superior court today. "Compound interest," is the explanation.

Stuart charged that Jones disappeared after the loan. He was apprehended recently and Stuart brought suit. The court found for Stuart, raised the figure and announced that it was the "only judgment" it could render under the circumstances.

It took the court and two accountants two hours to figure the amount of the judgment.

Jones says he is willing to compromise.

PACIFIC TREATY OPponents OPEN FIRE ON COVENANT

Senator Hitchcock Calls
Pact An Alliance Negotiated in Secrecy.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Fire on the four-power Pacific treaty was opened in the Senate today from both Republican and Democratic quarters, when it was called up for debate after ratification yesterday of the Yaptreaty. The debate, however, was declared to be only a skirmish with the real fighting scheduled for next week.

Declarations against the four-power treaty were delivered today by Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, ranking Democrat on the foreign relations committee, and Senators Borah, of Idaho, and Francis, of Maryland, Republican "irreconcilables" in the Versailles treaty fight. Senator Hitchcock, who supported the Yaptreaty, said he would vote for the naval limitation and Chinese treaties also, but would not support the Pacific pact unless it was materially changed. Senators Borah and Francis declared their uncompromising opposition to the Pacific treaty.

Plans of Republican leaders for proceeding with the four-power treaty apparently surprised the opposition. When it and its supplement, the latter defining the scope of the territory embraced, were laid before the Senate, Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, Republican leader, proposed that their consideration be deferred at least until tomorrow unless some senator desired to discuss the treaties. Mr. Lodge said he did not desire to "force" action and said he would not open the debate but intended to hear first from the opposition. Senator Hitchcock, who is to be absent a few days, therefore, took the floor and launched the attack.

The Nebraska senator declared that the treaties constitute an "alliance," and he also censured vigorously the approval of secrecy surrounding their negotiation. It appeared, he stated, that the principal object was to aid Great Britain in getting rid of the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

A reservation, proposed in the foreign relations committee's deliberations by Senator Brandegee, Republican, Connecticut, was advocated by Senator Hitchcock. He proposed insertion, either by amendment or reservation, of the word "unprovoked" in the obligation clause. "Without this change," he said, he could not support the treaty, asserting that the United States should be obligated under the treaty only in case of provoked aggression against the signatory powers.

Senator Borah said that the alleged defects could not be cured either by reservation or amendment and Senator Francis declared the treaty would bring America into a terrible war. Mr. Francis also declared that the Democrats would receive "their award at the hands of the American people" if they stood fast against ratification. He added that he would not attempt concealment of the hope that this would result.

SMALL REFUSES CLEMENCY PLEA IN CHURCH CASE

CHICAGO, March 2.—Harvey W. Cleitch, 31, convicted slayer of two automobile salesmen, lost his last hope for life tonight when Governor Small refused a plea for clemency. Too weak to walk and his mind a blank, the result of a forty-day hunger strike, he will be carried to the gallows strapped in a chair at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, according to plans.

More than 400 persons have applied permission to see the trap sprung, including several women. Hangings in Chicago have usually been held in the morning, and the present plan has met with some opposition. Church, who last summer killed two automobile men, Bernard J. Daugherty and Carl Ausmus, that he might obtain for nothing a $5,000 car, lay on a cot in the death cell tonight apparently unconscious of all that went on about him.

His mental state has been described by attending physicians as "mental suicide." Today he was fed again through a rubber tube.

APPEAL TO GOVERNOR. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 2.—An appeal on behalf of Harvey Cleitch, sentenced to be hanged tomorrow in Chicago for murder, reached Governor Small's office late this afternoon from the Housewives' Union of Palo Alto, Cal. They asked "for humanity's sake" that his execution be forbidden. They are affiliated, their message said, with the "Society for the Prevention of Legalized Crime."

SPOTLESS GARMENTS

No woman of refinement wants to go about clad in clothes that are not spotless. But it is impossible for her to keep her garments, especially fluff dresses of light colors. Send them to us, if they are wash dresses, we will return them to you in immaculate condition. Every detail of laundering, starching, ironing, etc., is done by experts here.

All Smoke—No Blaze

LONDON, March 8.—Part of London was covered with a blanket of smoke when a tobacco factory on Bath street, E. C., caught fire. The firemen had trouble finding the fire, because of the thick smoke.

Take a look at your old hat. Is the sweat leather greasy; is the edge shiny?

If so, CHUCK IT and buy a NEW BONNET. The comfortable, clean feeling you get is worth more than the price of the hat. Just as soon as the new styles happen we have them on tap for you.

We have the new suit to go with the new hat.

We charge you all our goods are worth, and give all you pay for. Why lie about it. Wear our good, "Nifty" Clothes.
